

GRADUATE EQUITY FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

GUIDELINES FOR APPLICATION

ACADEMIC YEAR 2017-2018 SAN FRANCISCO STATE UNIVERSITY

The purpose of San Francisco State University's Graduate Equity Fellowship program is to increase diversity by supporting graduate students with educationally or economically disadvantaged backgrounds and outstanding academic records in their efforts to complete master's and doctoral degrees. The fellowship is only available to students admitted to an SF State master's or doctoral degree program. Credential-only and certificate students are not eligible.

Under the Graduate Equity Fellowship Program, awards of up to $3,500 may be made to graduate students in master's degree programs, and up to $5,000 for graduate students in doctoral programs, at San Francisco State University for the 2017-2018 academic year.

Eligibility Requirements

Applicants must:

- have an earned baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution of higher education;
- be newly admitted to or continuing in an SFSU master's or doctoral program by the effective date of the award;
- be considered a resident of the State of California for fee purposes;
- have maintained a GPA of at least 2.70 in all undergraduate work;
- have maintained a GPA of at least 3.25 in all graduate work;
- be eligible for financial aid, as determined by the SF State Office of Student Financial Aid;
- enroll in and complete a minimum of eight units of coursework applicable to the degree objective during each term of the award.

Note: You may submit your application prior to notification of admission to graduate school. If selected, your award will be contingent on your acceptance.

How to Apply

- New students must submit the application for admission to the University and the degree program by the published application deadline dates.
- Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form, and submit it to the Federal Processor. You can obtain a FAFSA form from the Student Financial Aid Office in the Student Services Building.
- NOTE: Current recipients must reapply and must resubmit the FAFSA form.
- Submit (in one packet):
 - Completed Graduate Equity Fellowship application, including the personal statement.
 - Copies of transcripts from all undergraduate and graduate institutions attended (unofficial transcripts are acceptable). Note: Continuing students who have previously received this fellowship must include a copy of their current transcript from SFSU, but do not need to provide transcripts of undergraduate coursework reviewed in a previous application process.
 - Two letters of recommendation.
- Your complete Fellowship application packet must be received or postmarked by May 12, 2017.

Mail or bring your application to: Attn: Graduate Equity Fellowship
Division of Graduate Studies, ADM 250
San Francisco State University
1600 Holloway Ave., San Francisco CA 94132

Students will be notified of their award status by mail during the month of July 2017.
