

THREE GRADUATE PROGRAMS IN

ETHNIC STUDIES

- The Ethnic Studies MA program offers an opportunity to engage in interdisciplinary graduate research that empowers students to continue their commitment to social justice through both scholarship and community engagement (30 units of coursework).
- The Ethnic Studies Certificate program provides the historical background and critical skills necessary to create a more equitable and anti-racist workplace (12 units of coursework).
- The SF Scholars program allows undergraduate students to take graduate level courses and complete the BA & MA in a reduced time frame.
