RIPTIDES MS students study for 2.5-3 years at the intersection of global change, urbanized coasts and ecosystem function with training in the practice and conduct of original research based at the EOS Center.

RIPTIDES core program elements:

1. Independent Research Project
2. Cohort Benchmarks & Program Advising
3. Professional Internship
4. Professional Skills & Writing Workshops
5. Courses in Global Change in Marine & Estuarine Science
6. Pedagogical Training

ADMISSIONS ARE OPEN NOW UNTIL FEBRUARY 1ST 2021

CONTACT US:
RIPTIDES Coordinator, Adam Paganini, M.S. paganini@sfsu.edu
Grad Coordinator, Dr. Ellen Hines ehines@sfsu.edu

https://riptides.sfsu.edu